Representatives of the trunk lines present expressed themselves as highly pleased with the practical operation of the compact during its first year's trial and present indications point to a greater measure of success during the coming year. Members of the committee say they have reason to believe that the agreement is now about as perfect as it can be made, and that import rates will be even better and more uniformly observed hereaf-ter than was possible during the past year. A RARE BOOK READY.

First Volume of the History of the Church on Sale Tomorrow.

Tomorrow morning the long awaited 'History of the Church," the book specially commended by the First Presidency, will be placed on sale at the Deseret News Book Store, Volume one takes up the first period of the work and embraces the history of Joseph Smith, the Prophet, told by himself. The present intention is to issue about one volume a year, until the work is brought down to the present times. As is well known the book is issued by the Church authorities, having been prepared by the Historian's office, B. H. Roberts having written the introduction and the notations, The book is sure to excite widespread attention, not only on account of its subject, much of the matter now being printed for the first time, but for the reason that it is probably the largest work ever prepared in America at the

The book contains over 500 pages, is printed on heavy paper, bound in several styles, with an impression of the Hill Cumorah engraved in gilt on the front coverlid. It is such a work as in New York or Philadelphia would be placed upon the market at $2.50 or $3.00, but the desire of the First Presidency being that the book should have the widest circulation, it was decided to issue it at the bare cost of printing, and placing upon the market; the price of the work will be only $1.50 (cloth bound), and it can be had in more expensive bindings at an increased cost. All inquiries for the "History of the Church" should be addressed to the Deseret News Book Store.

The reason given for another coninuance was the fact that Atty. Straup was in Provo and would not return un-til that time. In the meantime Eckstein is enjoying sweet liberty, but under $3,500 bonds.

The headquarters of the Samoan mission have been removed from Fagalit to Pesega, Upolu, where a fine twostory meeting place is now in course of erection. Merrill of that mission writes that the Church building at Tuasivi is being pushed forward to pletion, and that the work generally on the islands is in good condition. There are now 23 Elders and two sisters in that field, but as this number is not sufficient to meet existing demands, more will be sent out in November.
